AN "INSIDE JOB" and only Bantam Porto-Power can do it!

(Left) Here the ram, in combination with extensions, couplings and pushing heads, is completely assembled inside a 1941 Buick sedan door to do a first class aligning job. Modern doors are expensive and have been a great problem. But the Bantam makes it possible to salvage doors that otherwise would go on the junk pile. The lightweight, compact Bantam Porto-Power makes bulky "one purpose" door rebuilding contrivances unnecessary.

90% OF ALL BODY WORK is licked by the Bantam!

Squeak-Proof automobile design demands precision assembly — and the Bantam supplies smooth hydraulic power for the many tricky jobs needing a push, spread, lift or pull before units are properly lined up.
